

Our Residency Expectations

- Regular Church attendance
- Study the word of God, the Bible
- Active participation in AA, NA, and / or Celebrate Recovery
- Work the 12-steps with a sponsor
- Seek employment and/or be employed
- Adhere to Residential Requirements and Responsibilities

We believe that after the completion of a short-term residential recovery program or incarceration, that our house will provide an environment to continue building the foundation of sobriety and recovery from the hurts, habits and hang-ups, while addressing the root causes of their substance abuse.

Christian values and family morals are placed within her renewed spiritual ability. With each successful day will come the reassurance of self-esteem that had slipped away from them while participating in active addiction. Responsible decisions will become a natural part of everyday living. The guidelines and rules help each person develop a foundation of accountability.

We are extremely excited you have chosen to become a member of the Lily House family and travel the recovery journey with each of us. Sober Living allows you to stay as long as you like, if you abide by the guidelines. Your success depends on your own integrity, open-mindedness, and willingness to change and share your recovery.

Lily House is simply an example to how a spiritually and mentally healthy individual should live day to day.

Residency & Admissions

Applications are available to participants with twenty-eight (28) days of sobriety verified by an approved rehabilitation center or clergy, program sponsor, legal advisor or officer of the court. However, all applicants will be reviewed on a case by case basis. Applicants not meeting admissions requirements will be placed on a stand by status.

- All applicants are subject to drug and/or alcohol testing..
- The weekly fees are due on Friday of each week before 6 PM.
- All residents who are not employed must be actively seeking employment each day by 8:30 AM. No reasonable job offer is to be refused without prior approval of Lily House Management. All voluntary terminations of employment or job changes must have the same prior approval.
- Residents are required to attend and participate in the Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous program, or Celebrate Recovery. Must attend a minimum of Three (3) meetings per week and acquire a verifiable sponsor.
- Residents agree to attend a church or place of worship on Sunday of their choice.
